

CONTRIBUTORS

Dennis DELETANT

University College London, School of Slavonic and East European Studies
United Kingdom,

d.deletant@ucl.ac.uk

Is a visiting professor of the Department of Romanian Studies "Ion Ratiu" at Georgetown University, Washington, DC, and Professor Emeritus at the School of Slavonic and East European Studies, University College, London. Doctor Honoris Causa of the Ovidius University of Constanța. Professor Deletant is also the Honorary Director of the Institute for Black Sea Studies at Ovidius University of Constanța.

Florin ANGHEL

"Ovidius" University of Constanța, Romania

fl\_angel@yahoo.com

Florin Anghel is Professor at the Faculty of History and Political Science, „Ovidius” University of Constanța, with a doctoral thesis on the evolution of bilateral relations between Romania and Poland in the period between the two World Wars. His main research interests include the history of international relations in the 20th century, the evolution of political systems in Central Europe in the interwar period, the state of the Polish and Slovak communities of Romania until 1945.

Tatiana SCURTU

„Gheorghe Șincai” Institute for Social Sciences and the Humanities of Târgu Mureș, Romania

tatianascurtu9@gmail.com

Tatiana Scurtu – scientific researcher at Romanian Academy, „Gheorghe Șincai” Institute for Social Sciences and the Humanities of Târgu Mureș, PhD student of „George Emil Palade” University on „Romanian communities in Trei Scaune at the end of the 18th century and in the first half of the 19th century (1760-1850)”. Scientific recognition: Editor of: Acta Carpatica (Yearbook of the Romanians in the South- East of Transylvania); Români și secui în secolele XVII-XX: reflexii istoriografice (Romanians and Szeklers in the 17th-20th centuries. Historiographical reflections), by Vasile Lechințan, Ioan Lăcătușu, 2022; Români din arcul intracarpatic și instituțiile lor identitare (Romanians from the Intracarpathian Arc and their identity institutions), by Ana Grama, Ioan Lăcătușu, 2023; Memorii din Carpați și din Răsăritul Îndepărtat (1914-1920) (Memoirs from the Carpathians and the Far East (1914-1920), by Ioan Cichi-Ciuncan, 2023.

Petar DOBREV

Sofia University “St. Kliment Ohridski”/Bulgarian Academy of Science, Institute for Historical Studies

pzdobrev@uni-sofia.bg

Petar Dobrev was born in Varna in 1985. In 2013 he received a MA in History at the Faculty of History, Sofia University „St. Kliment Ohridski“. In 2016 he became an Assistant Professor of Contemporary Balkan history at the Department of History of Byzantium and the Balkans at the Faculty of History, Sofia University. In 2019 he received his PhD with the dissertation: “The Holevich Family – Agrarian Capitalists in the Ottoman Empire, Bulgaria and Romania (19-20th c.). His research interests include the social history of the Balkans, agrarian history, history of Dobrudja and the history of the leftist movements in the Balkans.

Bahar JALALI

Loyola University, Maryland, USA

baharj74@gmail.com

Dr. Bahar Jalali teaches the history of the Modern Middle East. Her area of expertise is Afghanistan. She focuses on modernization and women’s rights in the twentieth century under the Old Regime. She is currently finishing a manuscript on the Decade of Democracy from 1963-1973 in Afghanistan when an urban educated intelligentsia spearheaded democratic reforms and a liberal Constitution.

Gabriel Stelian MANEA

”Ovidius” University of Constanța, Romania

gabrielstelianmanea@yahoo.com

Gabriel Stelian Manea is a lecturer, PhD, at the “Ovidius” University of Constanța, Faculty of History and Political Science. His areas of interest include the relationship between the church and communist regimes, spiritual and cultural anti-communist dissent, and the history of the Romanian Orthodox Church during the communist period.

Williams Ehizuwa ORUKPE

University of Benin, Benin City, Nigeria

Williams.orukpe@uniben.edu

Dr. Williams Ehizuwa Orukpe is a professional academic historian. He is a Lecturer in the Department of History and International Studies, University of Benin, Benin City, Nigeria. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in International Studies and Diplomacy, a Master of Arts Degree in History, and a Ph.D. Degree in History and International Studies. He is a 2021 Fellow of the Ife Institute of Advanced Studies (IIAS). Dr. Orukpe's areas of research interest include development economics history, Nigerian political, social and diplomatic history. Some of his published academic research works include: Rethinking Africa's Path to Economic Development: The Nigerian Example; Nigerian Economy and the Dilemma of Development in Historical Perspective; Esanland in the Context of Modern Development Planning in Nigeria; Igbo Traders and Transporters in the Project of Nation Building in Nigeria.

Iasmin-Sermeda CURTI

Yunus Emre Enstitüsü, Türkiye

curtiyasmin7@gmail.com

Iasmin-Sermeda Curti completed her academic studies at the Ovidius University of Constanța. With a Bachelor's degree in Philology and a Master's degree in History, she is passionate about languages, multiculturalism, and international relations- interests reflected in her educational path. Her main areas of focus are the dynamics of Romanian-Turkish relations, as her dissertation paper centres on the diplomatic relations between these two countries over the past three decades, and the Turkish and Tatar minorities living in Romania. In this regard, she also completed an internship at the Embassy of Romania in Ankara in 2023, and had the opportunity to study at the Faculty of Language, History and Geography at Ankara University in 2020 through an Erasmus scholarship.

Florin ANGHEL

"Ovidius" University of Constanța, Romania

fl\_angel@yahoo.com

Florin Anghel is Professor at the Faculty of History and Political Science, „Ovidius” University of Constanța, with a doctoral thesis on the evolution of bilateral relations between Romania and Poland in the period between the two World Wars. His main research interests include the history of international relations in the 20th century, the evolution of political systems in Central Europe in the interwar period, the state of the Polish and Slovak communities of Romania until 1945.